

Please join Major, Lindsey & Africa, Riley Safer Holmes & Cancila LLP and PwC on Thursday, June 21, 2018, for a complimentary General Counsel Crisis Management Program at PwC's Chicago office.

For general counsel, how you handle crisis can mean everything for your company and career. Those unique few who operate successfully in these critical situations know that each crisis is different and often a crisis isn't an isolated, contained incident. It isn't fleeting. It builds, unfolds, peaks—and the effects to person, company and profession can be devastating. Some you know about in advance, some you know could happen one day, some are just impossible to predict.

Come hear firsthand insights from an esteemed panel of experienced general counsel who faced the fire, prospered and will provide lessons learned for you, your legal team and your organization on how to stay cool when the heat is on!
