

Tania Gonzalez

Associate

Direct: 312.471.8664 Email: tgonzalez@rshc-law.com

Tania Gonzalez is a thorough and attentive associate with high proficiency in legal research. Tania leverages her excellent interpersonal skills to partner with her clients and provide thoughtful representation in every matter. Tania works diligently, using her law degree along with her undergraduate degree, to efficiently and effectively problem solve any litigation issue.

CREDENTIALS

Education

University of Illinois College of Law, J.D., 2025, cum laude

The Elder Law Journal, Editorial Board

Civil Procedure Teaching Assistant, 2023

Immigration Law Society, Executive Board

University at Albany, B.S., Chemistry and Economics, Minor in Mathematics, 2021, summa cum laude

Departmental Honors

Dean's List

Phi Beta Kappa

Excellent Academic Achievement in Economics Award, 2021

Larry Snyder Advanced General Chemistry Award, 2018

Chemistry Club, Executive Board

Bar Admissions

Illinois

Languages Spoken & Fluency

Spanish, Proficient

PUBLICATIONS & PRESENTATIONS

"Shifting Tides in Patent Litigation: Key Developments for 2026 and Beyond," (co-author) RSHC Client Alert (September 2, 2026)

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Tania completed over 450 Pro Bono hours during law school with the Alexandria Public Defender's Office and Land of Lincoln Legal Aid, Medical Legal Partnership Clinic.