

Sophia Lares

Associate

Direct: 312.471.8673 Email: slares@rshc-law.com

Sophia Lares is a first-year litigation associate who brings strong research, analytical, and advocacy skills to her litigation practice. She graduated from Loyola University Chicago School of Law in May 2025, where she earned Dean's List honors, received a CALI award for Business Practice Transactional Skills, and served as first chair in a mediation practicum, successfully representing a client to achieve a favorable settlement. During law school, she worked as a Summer Associate and Law Clerk at RSHC, gaining experience in commercial litigation and wrongful convictions.

CREDENTIALS

Education

Loyola University Chicago School of Law, J.D., 2025

Thomas More Merit Scholarship recipient

Dean's List

Spring 2025 CALI award recipient for Business Practice Transactional Skills

Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) Mentee

Diverse Attorney Pipeline Program (DAPP)

University of Virginia, B.A., Sociology, Entrepreneurship Minor, 2020

Dean's List

Phi Alpha Delta

Delta Delta Delta, Risk Manager

Women's Leadership Development Program

Bar Admissions

Illinois