Raymond Rushing is a multi-faceted, passionate leader with undeniable good character and optimism. A successful product liability litigator, he possesses the knowledge, skills, and essential ingredients: intelligence, integrity, dedication, discipline, and empathy to effectively defend his clients and support his teammates. Raymond looks for the brighter side of the challenge, and his actions embody his core values especially during uphill court battles.

Raymond guides clients through all stages of product liability and complex litigation. He represents clients before state and federal courts, and concentrates on medical device, consumer and industrial product defect, and mass tort claims. His experience includes coordinating national trial strategies for Fortune 500 companies, preparing and arguing motions, defending depositions, and negotiating favorable settlements for clients. He also served as a Social Security Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Maria Valdez of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

He is a source of influence and inspiration and a firm believer in lifting as he climbs. His interests include serving on the Board of the Cook County Bar Association and mentoring law students. When not practicing law or serving the community, Sundays are his time to catch up on reading the print edition of several newspapers. He also puts his passion and creativity to work in the kitchen by baking delicious, homemade cookies and apple pies.
