A creative advocate and formidable legal writer, Joshua Roquemore brings strong analytical skills and communication to his practice as a commercial litigator.

Focusing his work on defending the interests of businesses in commercial matters, Joshua is well-versed in civil litigation. His experience extends to written discovery, dispositive motions, depositions, and arguing motions in court. He is particularly skilled at translating legal issues into clear language and connecting case strategy to client goals.

Joshua has defended a wide array of companies in litigation, arbitration, and pre-litigation negotiation, including multiple Fortune 500 and Global 500 corporations. His representations involve a variety of claims and issues, including wrongful death and personal injury, property damage, commercial contract disputes, insurance coverage disputes, product liability, and regulatory advisement.
