Riley Safer Holmes & Cancila Welcomes Thomas H. Collier, Enhancing Client Solutions in Complex Litigation and Investigations

CHICAGO, IL, October 26, 2026 – Riley Safer Holmes & Cancila LLP (RSHC) is pleased to announce that Thomas H. Collier has joined the firm as a partner in its Chicago location.

Collier brings extensive experience representing businesses, executives, and organizations in complex commercial disputes, internal investigations, regulatory matters, and other high-stakes litigation. His addition further strengthens RSHC's nationally recognized litigation platform and deep bench of experienced trial lawyers.

A seasoned advocate and trusted counselor, Collier has guided clients through some of their most significant legal and business challenges, developing a reputation for strategic judgment, practical advice, and effective courtroom advocacy. His experience spans a broad range of industries and matters, including complex business disputes, government investigations, and regulatory proceedings.

"Tom is an exceptional litigator whose intellect, judgment, and advocacy skills make him a tremendous asset to our clients and our firm," said Judge Patricia Brown Holmes, Managing Partner of RSHC. "He has earned a reputation for providing practical, strategic counsel in complex disputes and for delivering outstanding results in high-stakes matters. We are thrilled to welcome him to RSHC."

Collier's arrival marks another milestone in RSHC's strategic growth and continued investment in premier litigation talent. As clients face increasingly complex business, regulatory, and reputational challenges, the firm remains focused on expanding its capabilities and delivering exceptional results through practical counsel, innovative solutions, and elite advocacy.
